4: Students get their registration confirmation after submission of admission form and fee and they are added to the course's WhatsApp group for further guidance, updates and class links.

Class Procedure:

- These are fully interactive classes.
- Taking a complete class from the start to end is a must.
- The class incharge starts the class and share the class link in group at least 5-10 minutes before the class time.
- Students must have to join the class before the class starts. Teachers take attendance when the class time starts.
- In Tajweed time, Tajweed teacher gives the Hifz lesson and make the students improve their Tajweed.
- In Hadith time, Hadith teacher plays Bukhari lectures of Ustazah Dr. Farhat Hashmi which students listen and take notes of.
- Teacher conducts discussion on the important points of the lesson and students are welcome to share the points they learnt and ask any question related to the lesson.
- Then there is a group time in which the group incharges listen the hifz and translation of the previous lesson from the students.

Exams: The class in charge emails the assignments/papers to the students 2-3 days before the test date.

Students save (download/print) them without looking and open them only at the test time.

In Urdu Courses, papers/assignments must be solved in Urdu.

Students can solve papers either by hand after taking a printout or can solve online by installing the editable version of Adobe reader and Urdu installer through following links:
